MIST MISTINGS

Lunch at Mason's.
Fancy Box Candy at Mason's.
Wilbur Muckle spent Monday in Vancouver.
Meet your friends at the Royal Confectionery.
St. Helens dairy wants your milk and cream orders. Phone 107.
Superintendent J. W. Allen transacted business in Portland Monday.
Don't forget that the St. Helens dairy wants to please you. Phone 107.
If you want milk that is absolutely pure, buy it of the Sunny Brook Dairy.
Royal Candy Kitchen and Confectionery. The best of Hot and Cold Drinks.
Call the Sunny Brook Dairy and order your cream and milk. Phone 106-5.
Mrs. Frederick Trow of Rainier, spent Saturday with her sister, Mrs. A. F. Barnett.
Miss Lulu George and Miss Fleck spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. George.
Follow the crowd and go to the Royal for the best of Candies, Cigars, Tobacco, Fruits, Nuts and Drinks of all kinds.
Mrs. Lavinia Caudle of Portland, sister of Mrs. H. P. Watkins, attended the funeral of her nephew, Glen Watkins, Friday.
C. A. Nutt, editor of the Rainier Review, favored this office with a fraternal call while in the city Saturday. He was on his way to Portland.
Miss Elsie Philip, who has been one of the teachers in the Scappoose schools, has resigned to accept a position in the Washington school in Salem. She will leave for the capital city Friday.
E. W. Saxton has purchased the dairy of W. H. Faxon and the former commenced delivering milk Monday. He has a fine herd of Jersey cows and promises to furnish his customers with the very best. His dairy will be known as Sunny Brook Dairy.
James and Charles Muckle and folks, who are spending the winter in Los Angeles, write home that that country is fairly deluged with rain. They thought it rained in Oregon, but it is not to be compared with the dashing downpour of "sunny" California.
On the arrival of snow Tuesday morning an act of noteworthy importance was performed by one of our city's leading citizens and progressive business men, Wilbur Muckle, attracted most profound attention, as with the grace and ease he handled his shovel. Hurrah for Tuffie!
Ladies' Aid Coffee and Parcel Post Sale in the M. E. church this afternoon and evening, from 3 to 8. Coffee or chocolate and sandwiches and doughnuts, all for only 15 cents. Parcel post packages will be sold by number at 15 cents each. Will have the church parlors comfortable, so don't stay away. Everybody invited.

Dr. and Mrs. J. L. Zipperer spent Sunday in Portland.
Fred Watkins was a business visitor in Portland Monday.
Miss Marguerite Rankin has been quite ill with la grippe this week.
Mrs. M. H. Allen went to Portland Wednesday to spend several days.
Mrs. W. B. Mackay of Portland, spent Sunday here visiting relatives.
Don't compare St. Helens dairy milk and cream without a trial Phone 107.
Royal Candy Kitchen for pure, home-made Candies, made in good old St. Helens.
The Methodist Ladies' Aid will meet in the church parlors Thursday afternoon, Feb. 3rd.
W. J. Fullerton was in this city Sunday. He has been "doing time" in Portland on the Federal jury.
Mrs. David Davis of Portland, is visiting at the home of her mother, Mrs. Richard Cox, this week.
A. B. Lake of Chapman, was in town last week. He had to close school on account of the deep snow.
A number of kodakers have secured splendid views of St. Helens "under snow" and also of the snow storm.
R. C. Merryman of San Francisco, stopped over here one day this week. He is vice president of the St. Helens Lumber Co.
Miss Lou Crouse was in Portland Saturday to attend the funeral of her niece, Mrs. Ruth Broeder. Mrs. Decker accompanied her.
The steamer Multnomah pulled out Wednesday evening for San Francisco with 900,000 feet of lumber and a good list of passengers.
C. E. Stevens and wife attended the auto show in Portland Thursday. "Steve" says he wants to find out the latest kicks in automobiledom.
Mr. and Mrs. P. T. Evans expect to leave for Prosser, Washington, where they have property interests. From there they expect to go to California.
Mrs. E. G. Hibbs has moved her dressmaking parlor to room 9, Bank building. She will be there daily except Saturday a. m. Prices reasonable.
H. J. Southard returned from Portland Wednesday, where he received treatment for the past week. The gripple left his hearing in good shape. He was greatly benefited by the treatment.
Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Van Orshoven entertained Monday evening with a dinner party. The guests present were, besides host and hostess, Mrs. W. G. Muckle, Mrs. L. R. Farris and Miss Beryl Muckle.
Frank S. Grant, a prominent attorney of Portland, was transacting business in this city Tuesday. Mr. Grant and the editor of this paper worked shoulder to shoulder on the desk of the Oregon state senate a few years ago.
The Toggery in the Hewitt block, will open its doors to the public next Tuesday, with a fine line of up-to-the-minute furnishings for men. The firm invites the public to call and inspect their line, whether a purchase is desired or not.
In a few days St. Helens will have a 24-hour electric service. Owing to the demand for electric power it is thought the change to full service would justify the Electric Co. to make the change. As soon as the wires are strung and the additional connections made, the increased service will be turned on.

SCAPPOOSE
Claude Duncan of Marcola, was a home visitor last week.
Mr. Purcell made a business trip to Seattle Friday night.
Mrs. Edgar Stevens has been seriously ill the past week.
Arthur Clark of St. Helens, spent Monday with friends in Scappoose.
Hamer Gearhart lost a cow Monday night. The cause of the animal's death is not known.
Mrs. O. M. Washburn is teaching the sixth and seventh grades, while Mrs. Hatfield is convalescing.
What's the matter! This correspondent couldn't find any news this week. Only the grip—it's fun.
The big red bus made a few runs, but Ables put on a Ford again Tuesday to cope with the recent snow.
Mr. and Mrs. James Pomeroy motored to Portland Monday on a good road, returning Tuesday in the snow.
A full evening of music will be given the people of Scappoose one week from Sunday night. A regular musical feast.
Miss Ellarce Butler went to Portland Thursday to attend a play at the Orpheum, and spent a couple of days with her friend, Miss Ada Weist.
Mrs. N. A. Perry and daughter, Gladys, of Portland, are spending a few days with the Watts and Price families. Miss Gladys will entertain the Scappoose cousins Friday night.
John Calvin Weaver of McCleary, Wash., made a flying trip to see his many friends here. Mr. Weaver is employed in a men's furnishing store at that place and makes trips occasionally to Portland to order supplies.
Mrs. M. D. Reid spent a few days helping to care for Mrs. Getchell, who took the grip, which has resulted in a more serious trouble. Mrs. R. went to her home in Portland Tuesday, but will soon return.
Miss Athline Tolly is teaching the second and third grades this week.
Miss Mildred Taylor, a graduate of Jefferson high will be ready to take the place next week, and we hope she will be able to remain to the close of school.
The creeks have been on a rampage. South Scappoose branch was over the bridge at the Steve Haines place. Several bad slides are reported along the Canyon road. Roadmaster Abrey was up in the Ford to look at the havoc wrought.
James Ready, superintendent of Chapman camp, was riding on a speeder going to camp, when he ran into rocks that had been washed down the hillside. He was thrown from the speeder and his head badly cut. He was taken to Portland to a hospital.
The High School pupils secured horses and sleds and went on a sleighing expedition one week ago Tuesday night. Warren was their destination. They expanded their lungs by singing almost everything they knew and some songs that nobody guessed they did know. Sleighing comes but once a year (?).

CARD OF THANKS
We, the undersigned, parents and husband, desire to express our gratitude to friends who so kindly contributed their floral tribute, sympathy and assistance following the death of our beloved daughter Ruth, and wife.

Do You Have Back Ache Torpid Liver?

Good health depends upon a good liver. Whenever this important organ fails in its work of separating poisons from the blood, and producing the bile which aids in digestion, ill health, or even death may follow. Rexall Liver Salts aid nature to restore the liver to normal conditions by clearing the intestinal tract of waste matter. Valuable, also, in the treatment of rheumatism and those stomach, liver and intestinal disorders and skin eruptions caused by faulty elimination of the bowels and kidneys. Three sizes, 25c, 50c and $1.00.
Sold only at Plaza Pharmacy.
